ESSAY ON FATHERS DAY

In all our good times and bad times, our family supports us with the best care. Every member of the family plays a vital role in our life. Father is the one who is the head of the family and the one on whom all the family members can rely.

We consider all our fathers as our first superhero, who teaches us about good and evil. For a complete family, both support of our father and our mother are necessary. That is why we celebrate Father's Day every year to appreciate his efforts in our life.

While growing up, we watch stories and cartoons of superheroes. Everybody wants a superhero in their life. But the real and first superhero in the lives of a child is their father.

For every person, the father is the symbol of strength that binds the entire family together. A father works day and night tirelessly to support the whole family economically and morally.

Whenever we are stuck in a problem, the first person we remember is our father. Father is a pivotal element of the society and stands as a pillar for the family, on whom we can rely. So, to respect all the fathers around the world and their efforts, we celebrate Father's Day on 21st June every year worldwide

Father's Day in Catholic Europe is celebrated to remember Saint Joseph, famous for being a father to not just Jesus Christ but also everybody.

In the year 1907, the month of December, a tragic disaster of Monongah Mining took place. This incident led to the death of 361 men. Almost 250 children lost their father.

A woman named Grace Golden Clayton proposed to the government that Father's Day be celebrated in honor of all the unfortunate deaths of the men who used to be the fathers of some children. She also lost her dad in that disaster. That is how Father's Day began in the USA and then worldwide.

Father's Day is celebrated all around India with pomp and glory. It is a day for a very personalized celebration.

Children show their love and respect for their fathers by giving them gifts and cards. Several educational institutes, including schools and colleges, arrange different cultural programs to interact between the students and their fathers.

The television and radio broadcast different Father's Day programs that day. Online portals and social media get flooded with people posting pictures with their fathers, from childhood memories to grown-up memories.

Nowadays, people are always engaged with their busy schedules, and may not be able to express love and support to their fathers frequently. That is why we utilize Father's Day to appreciate our fathers for their extreme contribution.

Father's role in our lives cannot be explained in words. So, on Father's Day, we celebrate fatherhood and appreciate all the love and support they gave us immensely throughout our lives.

It is not just father's day, it should be every day, that we wake up in the morning with immense gratitude towards our father for providing us with a happy life that we are living, for protecting us from the evils, for showering us with love, and being the support system and guiding us in all the life's path

Loving and honoring our father on just one day by maybe posting about them in social media or giving them gifts is not enough. We must appreciate their role in our lives every day throughout the year. Our father is the one who will always stay by our side. Fathers are the pillar of a family that keeps the family together and supports them in all life paths. For appreciating our father, every year, we celebrate him on Father's Day by giving him gifts and spending the whole day with him.

But we should appreciate our father every day of the year. We should appreciate his sacrifices, which he did to make our dreams successful. We should make every day memorable for him.

Fathers are less likely to express their love and feelings but father's Day provides us with a chance to let our fathers apprehend that we know how much they love and care for us. Father's Day is a Day in the calendar when children gift their fathers a special thing, love. But what about the rest days of the year. Don't we love our father those days? Of course, we do. But Father's Day holds a special significance for the childrenEveryone in the society talks about only mother's love But fathers love is neglected because they are less capable of expressing their love. Father's Day is one of the most favourite days.

I spend The whole day long of 24 hours with my father going to movies, playing some outdoor games and dinner out at night.

Everyone in the society talks about only mother's love But fathers love is neglected because they are less capable of expressing their love. Father's Day is one of the most favourite days. I spend The whole day long of 24 hours with my father going to movies, playing some outdoor games and dinner out at night. I share a unique connection with my father. One of the qualities of my father that inspires me is to be humble towards every living being. My father has been a punctual and regular character in his professional life. he always values time and motivates me for the same.

He is a very kind and caring person but at the same time, he maintains a strict nature. All my understanding of sports and media, I have collected from my father. It is one of the single reasons why I want to be an athlete in the future. Father's Day is a day to thank him for all this.

Father's day first was observed on 5th July 1908, by Robert Webb at church names Central Methodist in Fairmont in West Virginia. Next year in 1909, while hearing the Mother's day sermon (lessons), Mrs Sonora Smart Dodd, determined to honour father's Day. It was his father, Henry, who had brought her up after her Mothers death at a very young age.

She wanted to pay off for everything he has done for her and hence he honoured June 19 in 1910 as Father's Day. Father's day is such an opportunity that comes with a sense of celebrating the presence of Father and his works in shaping up the life of the family. On this day, to acknowledge and bring forward the efforts of the father, people give gifts to their father and other specific things like organising feasts or a holiday.
